

Mission Statement:

The Atlanta Senior Care Network Niche enables representatives of companies providing services or products to the senior community to meet and share opportunities and information. We strive to broaden communication between organizations who serve seniors in the Atlanta Metropolitan Area and to educate the public and ASCNN members about the available resources to better serve seniors.